2015 Scottish Curling Junior Championships

20 - 25 January 2015, Curl Aberdeen

THE ROYAL CALEDONIAN 1838 CURLING CLUB

Programme

Welcome to the 2015 Scottish Curling Junior Championships

Ten junior women's teams and nine junior men's teams will be competing for their respective national junior titles at this annual event which brings together the best under 21 teams from across Scotland.

The Royal Caledonian Curling Club will be providing live line scoring and results coverage of the Scottish Curling Junior Championships on the Competitions section of our website www.royalcaledoniancurlingclub.org

We are delighted to be back at Curl Aberdeen which has been host to the Scottish Curling Junior Championships since 2010 and will now host the World Junior Curling Championships in 2018 as part of an ambitious programme of four international curling championships awarded to Scotland by the World Curling Federation.

2016 European Curling Championships Braehead

2018 World Junior Curling Championships Aberdeen

2019 World Wheelchair Curling Championship Stirling

2020 World Men's Curling Championship Glasgow

These events represent a long term commitment to the sport by The Royal Caledonian Curling Club and its bidding partners and will be a great opportunity to showcase our best talent and provide sports fans with the chance to watch world class sport on home soil.

The 2015 Scottish Junior Men's and Women's Champions will earn the right to represent Scotland at the World Junior Curling Championships where Scotland has medalled consecutively every year since 2004, most recently achieving silver for Scotland's women in 2013 and Scotland's men in 2014.

This year the World Junior Curling Championships will be held in Tallinn, Estonia from 28th February to 8th March 2015 www.wjcc2015.curlingevents.com

We hope you enjoy the 2015 Scottish Curling Junior Championships and look forward to welcoming you at our next national championships in February:

O.V.D. Scottish Curling Senior Championships, Lanarkshire Ice Rink, Hamilton, 11-15 February

Scottish Curling Championships, Dewars Centre, Perth, 16-22 February
